

WHY MUST ELIJAH FIRST COME

By

Elijah Muhammad

(Messenger of Allah)

Nasir Hakim, Editor

Published by

Secretarius MEMPS Publications at Smashwords

Copyright © 2012

Smashwords Edition, License Notes:

This eBook is licensed for your personal enjoyment only. This eBook may not be re-sold or given away to other people. If you would like to share this book with another person, please purchase an additional copy for each recipient. If you're reading this book and did not purchase it, or it was not purchased for your use only, then please return to Smashwords.com and purchase your own copy. Thank you for respecting the hard work of this author.

Books written by Elijah Muhammad, Messenger of Allah, can be obtained either through the author's official website: <http://www.memps.com> or through select online retailers.

* * * * *

TABLE OF CONTENT

Introduction
Who Do They Say I Am?
The New God's Presence
The New Language
The Science of 16
Elijah Is Of The Number 7 Not 6
The Transfiguration Of Jesus, Moses & Elijah
The New Book
Two Phases of Elijah's Mission
Belief In Last Messenger Is Sufficient
Men of Scripture Should Know Me
Mine Is From Above, Yours Is From Beneath
The Veil Must Be Lifted

* * * * *

INTRODUCTION

Many of us have either heard it said or we ourselves have used the statement: it doesn't add up, or a combination of it. What do we actually mean? In most cases, this statement is a response in reference to the order, disposition, or logic of an occurrence. We generally tend to expect a certain pattern, order or sequence of events to meet an established expectation or "norm." When this happens, we would say, that adds up, and when to the contrary, it doesn't add up.

Going through the process of weighing, measuring, calculating with some standard of reference is thought of as reasoning; yet; such reasoning would be deemed faulty if the standard is faulty. When coming to conclusions based on a faulty standard, up against which our thoughts are substantiated, then the conclusions will be faulty; therefore, it stands to reason that in order to ensure that our thoughts have a chance of arriving at a solid conclusion about anything, the standard with which we base our thoughts must first be iron clad.

Universally, most people of the modern world use common standards of reference; for example, a Bible, Holy Qur'an, Vedas, or perhaps some other writing that's been passed down from generation to generation. In most cases there are charges leveled by each constituency that "theirs" is the real or exclusive source of the "pure" word. Consequently, the authenticity of them all are always suspect; and rightly so.

Once they are translated out of the original tongues or languages in which it was originally introduced, something gets omitted or included that alters the original meaning accordingly. However, if we reserve our judgment about that particular aspect and focus in on the question of how does one determine with accuracy if an event occurred one hundred, a thousand, 30 thousand or 50 million years ago?

What instruments are used to determine the time lines? Some use the method of carbon-dating, which is the determination of the age of objects of organic origin by measurement of the radioactivity of their carbon content; also called carbon-14 dating. Although accepted as a standard tool of measurement, the fault generally lies with the person reading and interpreting the "findings."

In addition to the three books and secular instrument previously mention is another standard called the natural order or nature. How much of a mother it is will be left for those engaged in folklore.

The creation and the laws which govern it is the greatest system of order in existence. It is the most consistent and eternal system in existence and the common language or means of understanding its order is mathematics.

Mathematics is the language of order, calculation, weighing and processing itself. This language is essential and foundational for human life to exist and evolve; otherwise, we would generally remain on the level of beasts. Although beasts do not use math the way we do, it is still governed nevertheless. What makes us wiser than they is our ability to process knowledge, wisdom and understanding.

Knowledge, in this case, is something attained after learning or experiencing something with one or more of the senses: (touching, tasting, smelling, hearing or seeing) and an impression is left on the mind, which records all experiences or stimuli.

When we are able to take these experiences and store them, if you will, on a ledge, it is these experiences we “re-call” and add together to arrive at whatever conduct is necessary for a given circumstance.

If we can “re-call” or “re-member” (putting the different members of stimuli together) to reach a routine function, we are simply applying these combinations to function and conduct ourselves. We use this process without notice every time we learn something new. After a few times of subjecting the new information to memory and physical functions, we seem to “do it” without thinking about it.

When we can “do it” better and better, while making future experiences more constructive, productive, pleasurable, and profitable, our higher degree of the application of knowledge transitions into what’s known as wisdom. Wisdom is the judicious application of knowledge.

If we can master the application of knowledge, then we can advance. Some civilizations are considered more advanced than others. This is due to their superior way of applying knowledge and wisdom; yet, what would life be like if we could foretell the impact and result of our actions far in the future. If this level of application was mastered by today’s societies, there would be very little need for research and development or the process, trial and error or the concept of hypothesis(s) and theories.

It requires a high degree of Understanding, which is a comprehensive view of how things connect regardless of time or place. If we could see the outcome of all of our actions hundreds or even thousands of years in the future, then we could write our own future. This is attempted by social scientists that use a system call the Social Economic Status (S.E.S.).

Western World society operates from the basis of acquisitions and amassing material wealth. The quantity dictates status and privilege. When the factors of where the father lives, his economic standing in the society and how far he went in school, such factors are used as determinants to project his potential success in this civilization. Surely the degree of universality is limited, because this system is not universal; yet, the idea behind the attempt is what I want to focus on. Based on how the S.E.S. system is maintained, its consistency is used as the base on which calculations are developed. In other words, through the monetary controls, credit system, and wage earning controls, how well one prospers is controlled. Therefore, where one could end up is easily determined 10, 20 or even 60 years from any given point. The future is being written, because the factors that make it up are controlled; thus, outcome is predictable.

What’s referred to as social science here, (writing the future) is called writing History in the circle of the Original Blackman. The difference rests in the systems used as the standard of reference. Instead of using a synthetic, capitalistic system, the Blackman uses the laws and principles of the Natural Order.

A person’s quality of life rests on his or her ability learn the laws of life and apply the principles of life to be as successful as their potential will afford. The greater your ability, the greater your potential of overcoming obstacles, barriers or resistance.

In an effort to not lose sight of the overall point, calculating, weighing and factoring is essential to all of the above, which brings me to an important aspect of the same.

Why do we trust that we won't simply float off one day? Who says that there would always be gravity in control of this? Who says that the sun will be "in the sky" tomorrow? Who says that water will be wet tomorrow or that oranges will contain vitamin C? We take all of these things for granted, but why?

We control none of these things in terms of cause, but since we were born in a system wherein these things are constants, we have come to rely on them because of their consistency. What is the reliance called? The answer is trust. We trust that something is going to do such and such. What is the trust built upon? It is built upon observing a pattern over and over to the extent of assuming it's going to continue doing what it's been doing. Science is built upon this aspect of consistency of pattern. If it has a "history" of doing a thing, chances are it will continue doing it in the future.

See these patterns over and over again give us the basis of predictability, which eventually gives us the power or ability to control. As the laws of science operate on the basis of these fundamentals, so too can these laws apply to the school of theology, namely scriptural writing.

The study of comparative religion reveals to those with eyes that most scriptures used objects in the natural order, nature, as a vehicle to communicate. For example, sheep is used to symbolize the nature of humility. A goat is used to symbolize the nature of mischievousness, or wheat is used within a comparison with tare to symbolize the likeness of a thing, which could only be differentiated over time. Since the natural order is more consistent than a nation's man-made economic system, it could better withstand the test of time. Mathematically speaking, it would definitely be a better standard of judgment on which to calculate and arrive at more concrete conclusions.

Therefore, in the Bible for example, the prophets were all using the same system of reference. Regardless of the people, geography or time, understanding the divine rested on the use of this language. You may have noticed that none of the prophets of old said what their "religion" was; even to Jesus. Jesus never said, "I am a Christian." Moses never said, "I am a Jew." What did Abraham call himself? What about Isaiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Elijah, and so on.... These men didn't have to have a name for it, because it was the system around them. They all came from the same source. This accounts for the consistency of message, and although they came to different people at different times in different languages, in principle, they all taught the same. One thing to note here is that within their teachings was a prophetic direction leading ultimately to an end and time of judgment. What end was coming? Who or what was going to be judge?

Each prophet brought an "update" of sorts as though there was an ongoing story line they were simply adding to. Who was in charge of the story? The prophets were leading up to a final day. Some referred to a great and dreadful day.

History bears out that there has always been men who have had access to scripture, which gave them somewhat of a time piece to what was coming in the future. When things "didn't add up" by not happening as expected, it would make them suspect of the barer of inconsistency. The same situation occurred in Jesus' time when he began preaching judgment to the Jews 2000 years ago.

There were men among them who were called doctors of the law and they would challenge Jesus on practically everything they said; not because they didn't have anything else to do, but because they were walking a serious and deadly tightrope between maintaining a gutted lifestyle tolerated by Caesar or dying as a result of Caesar sensing instability and killing their nation and taking their status (S.E.S). As they put it, when referring to Jesus, “that it is expedient the one man dies so the whole nation perish not.”

When Jesus’ disciples would propagate the teachings, they would be confronted by the Jew and was told that, in essence, we see what your master is preaching and doing, but what he is saying is to be taking place now is not expected to happen for another 2000 years? Why were they saying that? They knew that according to the scriptures they (white race) had another 2000 years before being judged; therefore, they were expecting to see certain signs before the end, which they didn’t see. This is why the disciples returned to Jesus and asked, “Dear master, why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?”

Since the scribes didn’t see Elijah, they were willing to calculate on Jesus being 2000 too soon, than to doubt what all the prophet before him had predicted. In other words, it wasn’t adding up.

Fast forward today, 2000, later and use the natural system as your basis of reference, it makes understanding the scripture a different experience than you may have imagined.

The prophets predicted that the “Last One” would be different than all the rest and that He would be used by God differently, because he would be the only one taught directly from his mouth.

As you can tell a tree by the fruit it bears, know a man by his work. We do not ask one to believe the information in this book on face value; however, few understand that being re-educated into how to see, hear and perceive may be difficult, but it is only hard except for the humble.

Let he or she with eyes see. This book is not designed to force anyone to do anything. It simply illuminates and exposes that which is in the dark.

Get knowledge, get wisdom, but in all thy getting, get an understanding.

Minister Nasir M. Hakim, Editor
Secretarius MEMPS Ministries

* * * * *

WHO DO THEY SAY I AM?

The defender and witness of the truth is called the wise man in the resurrection who knows the truth that bears witness to that truth. This is the Last Messenger.

Why would God give His Messenger a place with Him in the resurrection of the dead and he being one from the dead, while yet being one that He choose to qualify for His representative from among the dead and he himself was once dead? Let us look at the argument by the scholars and scientist of Arabia and of America and where ever he may be.

The purpose of God choosing a Messenger in the last day is to bring the truth that God is about to shed upon the world; a world that has been absent from the truth for the last 6,000 years. Now that truth is here and the Universe is often used, as it is said in the Qur'an, to bring to us the light of Allah's truth. He makes the root of the universe's creation bear witness of His truth in the resurrection of the dead.

Why? Because He's building a new world and you scholars and religious scientists will bear me witness that the Bible and Qur'an's prophesies of a new world is coming into existence from the God in the resurrection.

If it's a new world, then it is to be a permanent world; it is to be a world that will stand forever. This is written in the book of prophesy, that His Kingdom will abide forever and there will be no end to His kingdom. Well, He must cover then the very [roots] of the Creator's aims and purpose in building what we call today a space full of planets and stars.

The designer of the present Universe made something that absolutely is unmatched and He made it out of the wisdom of man throughout the past until today. The Holy Qur'an repeatedly teaches us that the God of the resurrection of the dead can take away this universe and bring in a new one and He can reproduce it. He has the same knowledge and power of the designer of the Universe in the first place. Well then, why should He need a Messenger? He's self sufficient as the Holy Qur'an teaches, but He goes to fulfill His work according to the creation of the Universe.

The Universe of God could have remained Himself and still have the Universe for His own glory to look into the work of His own hand, but it was not so. He made a Universe to always be improved upon; therefore, every since the first sign of life in the Universe, it brought about other God's Who were capable of adding to it all of the time.

Now you say, "What does he mean?" I mean just what I said. The first God did not fill the space with stars and planets as you and I see them today, according to the teachings of God in the person of Master Fard Muhammad, Who answers the description of the God coming in the last days and His work comparing with the prophets who taught of Him. We being not able to comprehend all of His truth, still, that which we can comprehend, let us comprehend.

THE NEW GOD'S PRESENCE

Allah, in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, taught me that there are not any gods who live forever. Their wisdom and work may live six thousand or twenty-five thousand years, but the actual individual may have died within a hundred or two hundred years, or the longest that we have a record of, around a thousand years.

There is no God Living Who was here in the Creation of the Universe, but They produce Gods from Them and Their Wisdom lives in us.

Human Beings are created according to the life of the Universe (planets). Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, taught me that the Original Designer and Maker of the Universe created it on time and there is an end to it.

Scientists have learned by study that everything we see that we call Universe is not enduring. It is gradually decaying. The Bible and the Holy Qur'an both verify this decay of the Universe and that one day a Wiser God than Them all will exist in a new Universe. A new universe means that it will not be exactly like this one that we know. According to the hints of the Holy Qur'an, it will be a better one than we have. Naturally, after experimenting with a thing that has been made, we can improve on a new make of it.

The Black Man's Gods, according to the history He taught me, have all been the Wisest. They made the white man after their order in wisdom except the knowledge of how to bring into reality and perfection their vision and idea of what they want to perceive equal to the Black Man's Wisdom. This was kept back. They are forced to build their world on the basis of what they found in the Wisdom of Black Man.

The white man only made, formed, and put into service those things that met with the carvings and necessities of his people.

The white man was given the power of vision and different ways of life to enable him to build an unlike world from what we have had throughout the millions, billions, and trillions of years.

No God Who is going to rule the people of earth universally as the white man has ruled for the past six thousand years, was to be given a history or knowledge of the God Who ruled the people before Him. This is in order to keep the Present God from patterning after the Former God and to force Him to use His Own Wisdom in making a world and not a world patterning after previous Wisdom of the Gods before Him.

The white race did not get a chance to rule solely according to their wisdom because we were present and they patterned much of their world after what they saw of the Gods of the Black Man. This was due to the fact that the white race was made an enemy to the Black Man; therefore their time to deceive the Black Man was limited to a short span of six thousand years that are used by the Black Gods to rule.

The Wisdom of Each God, according to what Allah (God), in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, taught me, has a cycle of twenty-five thousand years. Once every twenty-five thousand years, another God would be given a chance to show forth His Wisdom to the people.

This has been going on for many trillions of years, according to His teachings to me—at least since the deportation of moon and earth, according to the science of why we use a cycle of twenty-five thousand years. This is compared to the circumference of our earth at the equator, which is approximately twenty five thousand miles. This is also compared with the rotation of our earth or the change at the poles which also makes a complete change once every twenty-five thousand years.

The White Race is an unusual people and their ideology is unusual. He has and was given the gift of a creative mind. To allow him to use his own ideas, the Black Man or Gods were put to sleep in order that the Wisdom of the Black Man did not interfere with what the white man was made for (to rule us under wickedness, enslavement, deceit, murder, and death for six thousand years). The Black Man or gods of the Black Man are infinitely wise. They are being aroused to their Wisdom today to rule the people again throughout the ages of time.

The Present God's (Master Fard Muhammad's) Wisdom is infinite. No Scientist can see an end to This Man's Wisdom coming in the future. That is why the Bible and the Holy Qur'an refer to Him as The Greatest and Wisest of Them All and say that He will set up a Kingdom (Civilization) that will live forever. He makes all things new. Allah (GOD) Who Came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are Due forever, taught me that every twenty five thousand (25,000) years, each God Coming After the Other God made a new civilization. His Belief, Teaching, and Theology were Different from the Other God Who Preceded Him Who Made a beautiful change in the History of the wisdom of man.

The making of the white race was something new. The difference between the two people (Black and white) is that the white race is a made people and they have a beginning and an ending. The Black Man is a created people and we have no beginning nor ending.

Before the making of the white race, we never had their type of evil people. The Black Man was never under an evil rule. Evil was never practiced among the Black People before the making of an evil world by Yakub. We never saw or experienced a civilization like the white man's civilization. We never had an unlike people among us before the white race was made. We were all alike especially in color.

In the angels' decision over the making of the white race, they said to the Maker of the white race, "What will you make but something that will cause bloodshed...a mischief-maker in the land who will cause bloodshed?" But the Maker, Yakub, did not deny that he was making such a man; but he said he "knew what the angels did not know." He did not know what the angels did not know. The angels knew that he was about to make a man who was going to destroy the peace of the Original Man and they told Yakub, the Father of the white race, what he had in mind to do in the making of a new man from us. So does Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever, know what He is about to do in making a new civilization.

The new man, the white man, came from us, but he is different from us. After Yakub grafted his man (white man) from us, his man became a new man to us. We are not a part of the white man.

The white man just looks like a human being, and he is a human being but he is not kin to us at all. You say, "I cannot understand how that is, Mr. Muhammad." This is true. After the white man was grafted completely out of the germ of the Black Man the White man was made into a new man, different from the Black Man whom he was grafted from. The white man became a new person altogether and his very nature is new to us. They do not have the same nature as we have. The white man is different by nature than the Black Man and the white man has made many things new.

The white race is the gods of their world. The white man put us on wheels. You say, "Oh, but we had wheels before." That is all right if we did have wheels. He himself put you on a new wheel, one different from the one you were using for transportation. The white man moved you off the camel's back and the donkey's back and he put you onto fast-powered transportation such as automobiles and he put you on wings in the sky. All of this was new compared to what we had. So we would like to show you that the white man himself has made a new world. Therefore should we be surprised when the God of Righteousness Comes in and Makes a New World and that He does not want any material of the old evil world? Are you surprised or is it due to your desire to remain with the old wicked world? The Next World is a World of Righteousness. You do not want to be righteous. You want to have Freedom, Justice and, Equality. But you still would like the wicked to continue to rule because of your desire to be wicked.

The God of Righteousness Who Will Rule in the Hereafter Will Have an unlimited Rule and not a limited rule like the rule of Yakub.

How Must the God of Righteousness Begin? What thought do you have of Him and His Beginning? He makes all things new. The first way to bring about something new is to change the way of thinking of the people. When you have removed from the people the old mind and idea then you can insert new ideas into their minds. This is done by the old being attracted by a new way of teaching...a new school of learning to condition their minds to that thing that you are about to present to them that is altogether new and different from what they have been accustomed to.

Should you worship the old wicked world and its wicked god or representative and allow it to exist forever and not allow a better world to come in? We cannot hinder Allah (God) in His Building of a new world because we lack the power to hinder Him. There is no god or nation with equal power to exert against Him to prevent His Idea from Becoming What He Wills them to be. Whatever He desires, He is wise enough to bring it to pass. Many times this Wisdom is misunderstood and the people think that it is some example of the person. We say Wisdom, Power, Force! There is no Power or force of power until we have the wisdom to produce it.

He makes all things new. He teaches us that He could use nothing of the old world and that after the removal of the old world He is to bring about the New World. Allah (God) Does Not Want the old god to think that He is weak in Wisdom and Knowledge and Power to Bring something altogether new without using their old wicked material.

This is like the Creation of us. In the beginning, the God Who created us had no material to use to begin a creation. He Had only Himself. Therefore out of darkness and the thoughtless and invisible He brought out the visible vision and thought and idea. He made a brain which had the power to cover the sphere of our thinking and to produce from that thought what image or vision that the brain cells could conceive. These things at that time were all new; there was no plan or universe except His. This is our Father, the Black Man, and the Maker.

The wisdom, idea, and way of thinking of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever, is Superior to any way of believing today. There is no one to hinder His Image or Thought for that which has not yet been conceived in our brain.

He goes after the root of all things like our Black Father did in the beginning when He built the universe out of nothing. He Is as One sitting out in space with no material of space to make something altogether new. He goes after the root in making this new world of people.

As He said, "first He makes a new mind for us and a new way of thinking." He teaches us a different education, one that we have never had before. He gives us education on the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of Gods...not of prophets... but of the Gods of the prophets of the past. He builds our minds according to the way Gods think and not the way of thinking of servants (prophets). The prophets of the past were inspired and their inspiration was true.

For the past six thousand (6,000) years there was no god present who was superior to Yakub. Our God and Scientists were not permitted to interfere with the people of Yakub and their civilization nor in the way in which they were thinking. That is why they (white race) would kill prophets who came among them teaching the way of righteousness to the people because Yakub's people, the white race, was not to build a civilization on the basis of Righteousness. The white race was to build a civilization just the opposite of Righteousness, and this he has done. This is the reason why the God of Righteousness and Justice cannot use the white race's way of civilization. The God of Righteousness must remove the white race's way of civilization altogether and build upon a new Foundation, as I keep repeating. The thoughts, the minds of the people must be so conditioned into the way of thinking of that new world that we must not think in terms of the new world being a part of another old world. . . Even your education of this wicked world will not be a part of the education of the new world.

I think that you are thinking that I am going too far now...However no education of this world of the white race will be accepted into the new world. For the new world you have a new education and government. The God of the New World is a New God. He is not the God Who ruled from the beginning, but He has the same idea of that rule as the God in the beginning to create something new.

As you notice, the effect of thoughts or your thinking at times has such deep effect on the brain that it affects the surface of your face, skin, and body. Your eyes are also affected by that tremendous thought or way of thinking that you have as it acts upon your brain.

Allah (God) makes it very easy in the next life... that new life. You will be happy all the days that you are in it. The Holy Qur'an teaches us that "He causes the righteous to grow into a new growth." The basis or pillar of that new world is when the old mind has been changed to a new mind or our thoughts are changed to a new mind or our thoughts are changed to a new thought or new way of thinking which brings about a change of the whole body.

He makes all things new in order to keep it from being said or written that He had to borrow some of the wisdom of this world...this would make Him lacking of wisdom and power to produce something other than what had already been produced. Therefore, the Holy Qur'an teaches us that He has the power to destroy the entire universe and bring in a new one and He can reproduce the present universe.

Here we have a prophecy that Allah (God) will make all things new. "He causes things to grow into a new growth," according to the Holy Qur'an. He would not be a God Who has power over all things if He could not change things according to His Will. If He could not make new people of an old dead people, then He has not the power to bring in new things, because reproduction is less trouble to do and does not require such a skill as it does to make something outright new.

Here it refers to both the spiritual and the physical side, but did not He make us in the Beginning out of nothing? Look at our creation from sperm to that of a human being. This is a marvelous piece of work of nature which bears witness of the First Creation. We are making new creatures every day. What helps to bring about new creation? When you make a new way of thinking in a person, he is bound to do something new; for he cannot do something other than new since he has a new mind, new ideas. A new mind and new ideas produce a new thing. Just because we have not seen the creation of these things we are quick to disbelieve that they can ever happen. The Bible, 2 Corinthians. 5:17 says "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new."

"All who are in Christ is a new creature." This Christ Who is referred to in the above verse is Allah (God) in Person (The Mahdi). This is true and the scripture's prophecy teaches you that. You have to be new to be one of His Followers. He changes you in mind; and as it is written "as man think, so is he" (Proverbs. 23:7).

As I have pointed out to you in the prophecy that He will make all things new, I have pointed out to you that this includes our being given a new mind which produces new ideas. The new mind and the new ideas are to condition us for the new materialistic things that He will make.

The new people that are to be made are from us (Black Man of America). We will be made a new people, for we have been destroyed mentally and physically by the teachers and guides of this world of the white race. Therefore in order to renew us, (the once servitude slave and the now free slave of our enemy), we must have a new spirit that will produce ideas in us to become a new people. Both the Bible and the Holy Qur'an prophesy that a new generation (people) will be raised up as I have pointed out on the making of a new heaven and a new earth. He can cause a renewal or reproduction of the heavens and the earth - to make it clear, cause them to grow into a new growth. He has the power to do these things. He has not only the Power to bring into existence all the things which we now see present, but He also has the Power to Change that which exists into something else, or to destroy the present existence outright and cause it to waste away outright and bring in a new creation in its place.

Here we have that God will destroy the whole world and bring in a new one. He doesn't take any part of your world, and the Bible repeatedly warns us that this world will be destroyed, and look forward to that which He makes new. Rely on the new world, not on the old, because this old world is based upon wickedness, and wickedness is the opposite of the right.

The righteous God coming at the end of the wicked world must establish a world without the resorting to the use of materials of this world. If He was taught to just say that He would use the method of mathematics of this world, He would not be recognized as a God able to build a new world and set a new example of mathematics other than that of this world. He's not to take anything of this world. He will fulfill the prophesy of Isaiah; wherein, he said that He will burn up both root and branch.

So if He is to destroy the world so completely that it won't even produce a sign of it, like a root of a tree is destroyed and cannot produce a branch on the trunk anymore, so is this world is predicted to be at loss like that, never to rise any more. There will never be no other human beings practicing what was in this world, not even those who are saved out of the destruction of this world; according to the prophesy, they are not to carry out any of the teachings or wisdom of this world, because the wisdom of this world is wicked; therefore, the righteous builder of the righteous world cannot take no part of, not even so much as the language.

THE NEW LANGUAGE

We must give the people a new language; you will find that in the Bible. Even in the teachings of the Holy Ghost coming forty days after Jesus' death, they spoke a new language; they didn't speak the old language. About sixteen languages they heard coming from the mouth of the disciples of Jesus, and this is the major languages of the nations of the earth. Why should it be sixteen? We don't go into this argument right here; however, I will drop this with you. Since we are 16,000 years from the writing of our history for the next 25,000 years, it's a number with significance, 16.

SCIENCE OF 16

In weight measurement, a pound that carried 16 ounces we call it a heavy pound or a long pound. Now, then we can agree that there is significance in this number 16, and the God has made it clear that there was a vacuum between 9,000 years to the 16th where the enemy was able to rule in the absence of one his equal.

The Christian preaches do not preach this, they only preach the history of 6,000 years, but what about the part of the old history of the world that was before this man coming in our history? They take nothing to do with it, because they are a new people, having not the knowledge of that which existed here and have not the knowledge of what will be after their time.

ELIJAH IS OF THE NUMBER 7 NOT 6

There are many people who are very far in the knowledge of the time we are living in and what we should do in such time. Many people are without the knowledge of that time. Some of us are speaking the language that people were speaking a thousand or two thousand years ago. Some of us are even speaking the language of 4,000 years ago. We are not speaking in the language of those people 4,000, 2,000 years ago. We are speaking in the language of the people here today at the end of 6,000 years ago. We are here to speak in the number seven. We have passed out of the number six. We are living the number seven. We are living in the symbolic teaching of the Bible: in the Lord's Day or in the Lord's Hour; meaning, the seventh thousand year since the creation of the Caucasian race.

So you may say, "well, forget it;" no I can't forget it, because it's something that I should know since I have been declared by God, in the person of Master Fard Muhammad, to be one of those who belong to the ones who was ruling before 6,000 years ago and I am belonging to the one that will be ruling after the six thousand years, I will one in the seven, I belong to the number seven and not to the number six, as the this world will also agree with me.

You must remember that God must have a Messenger of His own makings, not one of the makings of other God's or prophets. He don't accept someone else's product, but He tells His Messenger, "You are one chosen like all the others", not that He had a like message, but His choice of choosing him is similar to the choice of the God choosing Messengers before you; therefore, you being the Last one, you must be an eye witness of Me. You must know the God that you represent. The others represented God through visions, not in reality.

Brothers and sisters, brother scholars and scientist, religious scholars and scientist are the ones that I am referring to. Muhammad never did say he saw God at no time. Jesus just 700 years before Muhammad, he said that no man had seen God at anytime. This is where you lost the right path and are straying off, when saying that there is no such thing as "I can see God," but you are wrong there. The writer who wrote this can also defend himself, with respect to no man having seen God, at anytime that was coming in the last day, because the book is based upon the coming of a God to usher in the judgment of this world, and it is that God which no man has seen. He would come at the end of this world, see.

The Bible, in Thessalonians, verifies this prophesy that the God comes after the workings of Satan. He doesn't come in Satan's time of rule, because it's given to him to rule. It would upset his rule if the God go and make a new heaven and earth would come in a time of a God that can't bring about a new one, who did not bring about his own creation. And how can he be successful in the presence of a God who has the power to bring about a completely new overall universe, much less new people. But He can make the universe take on a new growth.

I'm face to face with arguments that Elijah is not the Messenger of Allah. Is not this the same objection and dispute that went on with all the Messengers before Elijah? Jesus had remembered, when the people told him, according to the Bible, it said that they were talking to Jesus, and said, "Elijah must first come." The people were trying to condemn or [challenge] his presence by saying "...you are not the real one, but Elijah must first come." While the answer gives to them that they are talking to Elijah, that yet he bears witness that Elijah must first come.

What you have done unto Elijah is as it was written. What was written for them to do to Elijah? Disbelieve, like all the other people did, and he has come, this is him talking. This is not the Jesus and John talking of 2,000 years ago. This is the answer Elijah gives to us today who are willing to attack him on the face value of this particular prophesy alone. When it's said, "that it was not you who was back there in Jesus time; John was the Elijah." However, you can easily be condemned. John was not the answer to the old testament of Elijah who must come and unite a people. He must come and bring again the love of the father to the children and the children's love to the father. He must bring about a union, and in bringing about a union between the two, he makes the pathway for God to come and then separate all that is against the father and his children, destroy them and unite the strayed people back again among their own, in their native home. Ezekiel prophesied that he would unite them again into their own land and he will set them upon the mountains of Israel. Not on their hills and mountains above the earth, but mount them and be exhausted as rulers over the people of the earth as Israel was. This is the mountain that he's referring to.

Is Elijah Muhammad the answer to all of this glorious prophesying? Is he the one? What type of man does the book teach us would appear in the last days that God makes or chose, one who actually was not in the minds of the wise of that day? He's in the mind. He was crushed, he and his people out of recognition. Are you referring to him in the infancy of his spiritual nation as a root out of dry ground? The dry ground here means a people wherein the truth of God was not even preached, like dry ground without water, to bring about the swelling or germination of a seed to produce a root down into the earth and send a shoot upward, having not the power to do it. Yet, here is a man just like that, whereas, one would be surprise to see a little green plant in a desert where there is no water and no rain to come. The desert here represents the people, wherein the Last Messenger would be raised. They have not the truth of God.

Now there comes to Elijah and his people, a representative of the true God, because they had been shut off by the slave man and not allowed to enter in his midst to teach the truth to the people from whom Elijah is raised, and you know that to be so today here in America. The truth is prosecuted and made hard for us to get. A hundred years ago there was no such thing as the government allowing the teachings of Islam to come here to help us. He doesn't want it and he banished them from among us. He threatens them that he will take away their citizenship paper if they come among the Negroes teaching you the knowledge of self, God and his religion. This is going on today.

That Warner is caused to grow up like that little root, like that little green flourishing plant; yet, you can't see where he got his water from. This is the way the God did to make a Messenger; wherein, the Bible prophesied of it, "Behold, He comes without observation or as a thief in the night while men slept." This is the lamb. Now after He's gone, a man is out here in our midst preaching to us of the presence of a God that He'd never heard of, condemning the world to be fuel for hellfire, preaching it face to face with his opponent, and defying them to dispute it. Now, who could you think that could come to answer the day of prophesy and the description of the truth bearer better than what you're hearing now.

As John said to his disciple, go and ask him, is he the one that was to come or shall we look for another one? And the answer that Jesus gave to John was, "The blind see, the death heareth, and the lame is walking and the dead is risen." Well now, this is the only great work that that one was going to do. So when John heard that, he didn't look for another one, because this is the work that that one was to do - that comes. I want to say to you that the dead didn't rise in the day of John and Jesus 2,000 years ago. They agreed that it was yet to come, and that the blindness, spiritual blindness of the people, was not cleared up in the day of Jesus and John and they will agree with you.

So we must remember that the man that God chooses in the last days must be a man that was as dumb and as deaf and as blind as any of the other people that must be resurrected. As Isaiah prophesied, "Who was blind?..." is the servant whom He choose. His choice was a blind one and who was even deaf and dumber than the one he had choose. He made him to see and serve now as a guide for the blind that can't see of his people to bring them into the light, the eternal light of God, the wisdom of God. His ears have been opened; he hears and he is to make the others to hear with the sounding of the truth of God.

Few times does the History teaches us that we will be taught by God in person throughout the resurrection, no. He makes the Messenger teach the truth in the resurrection and resurrect the people.

They are resurrected by a Messenger - not by God in person - but by the teaching and training of God to the Messenger of that people. They come to learn of the truth and that is what is referred to as being resurrected into life and the life of it is that they belong to a nation who shall live, this is what the life is referred to. They are now uniting with their nation who shall live forever - a nation that has no birth record and has no ending or death, to bring them to an end. They will live forever. Therefore, it is referred to symbolically in the Bible here that their names are written in the book of life, written in a nation that will live forever - that's the book. They are members of it which the God of Elijah has declared, that they are already Muslims in His world, meaning they're already members of the righteous. They were righteously created, but an enemy led them astray - the slave master of us and our people - and must be brought back into the knowledge of even ourselves.

This is the work of a Messenger in the last days and not the work of Jesus 2,000 years ago here today. We are not looking for them to return, they did their work. All the prophets up until today did their work. They don't come back to do a double work. They carried out their mission and they're not missioned to come back in the resurrection. Oh yes, let's see.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF JESUS, MOSES & ELIJAH

I know you have your mind on Jesus when he was teaching and suddenly there on the mountain appeared Moses and Elijah. It's amazing you say that the disciples of Jesus saw in a vision, Elijah and Moses talking to Jesus. What does this mean? It means the work of these two men, as the Moses was an example before Elijah, when it came to capturing the prey from a mighty one. Elijah must capture a prey from a mighty one, the beast, and liberate a people. These two were to liberate people and their work coincides; therefore, they saw Elijah and Moses together. This is the history of the two men, of whom Moses verified and prophesied the coming in the last days like himself; meaning, he must do a work similar to his; that is, to loose and free a people from the bondage of another one and from the bondage of ignorance, which the slave master has put them under. Like Israel was under Pharaoh, they both have a similar job as freeing and delivering a nation and giving to them a new land. Elijah has to put out a new country, a new land; wherein, his liberated slaves can enjoy the freedom of their own and to build a government of Freedom, justice, and equality for them in their time.

So naturally the God would choose a man of His choice and make him from nothing. Not from an education of the wicked; He educated His own man. Do you remember me saying that the root here came out of the dry ground without a shower from the clouds, and flourishing, and the people would wonder if some miracle had taken place here, because this little plant is growing so green? It's become a pool of water itself, but no water has been dropped out of the sky for it. It's in a dry ground, there's no moisture even is here. So, it's a very beautiful.

So what I want to do is to prove to you that God is making a Messenger out of the house of the wicked, but He was not made known before. He had to make Himself known by making witness for Himself. He had to do this Himself, because the wicked would never make a witness bearer of God to the truth. This is what the wicked had done. He had destroyed the truth. He was an enemy of it and he was made to destroy the truth, which is the base of the people and their true God.

If you say that Elijah can't be the last? Could we reach back 1,400 years ago and bring Muhammad and tell him to teach the American so-called Negroes? Could we do that and give them the knowledge of God, no. Nowhere in the Holy Qur'an does it teach you to expect the coming of Muhammad - nowhere, because the book is the very teaching to Muhammad in the last days. It is written that God would give them His name. In the Bible it says "I will call you by my own name," The Bible said, "I have raised you up, for what? - For a sign, what sign? The Holy Qur'an said that Jesus and his mother were for a sign, what sign?

If Jesus and his mother were for a sign and then the Bible teaches us that God would rise up the Last Messenger for a sign, what sign do these two people serve, what are they serving? A sign must have something of reality to serve. If we say, which is true, that Jesus was a sign of the dead, that is yet 2,000 years from his birth and mission, he is a son born in among hostile people, the Jews, who were bent upon keeping the truth of that prophet from the understanding of the people. Herod was very instrumental and was thinking only on his rule, because he had learned that that prophet coming will destroy his rule, take it away from him, and others will become rulers other than him and his people. Though you wanted to kill Jesus, but this is all a sign of what the enemy of truth will do in the last days. He will trick the Messenger of God and try to destroy him and as Jesus evaded the purpose and aims of the Jews' planning the death of himself, so will God will do the same.

They said here (Bible) that Jesus, after death, went up to heaven back to his father. This only means this, that after the ignorant death of the knowledge of self that then we will be united and the Messenger, God will take him to heaven with Him, after his mission. As we don't find the grave of Elijah, the Bible doesn't give it to us. We don't find when he died. Moses, it teaches us, that he went up in the mount and died, and angels buried him. Now the Last Messenger is a man like Moses, then should we expect the enemies to destroy him? Pharaoh wasn't able to destroy Moses, nor the people that he was leading; they weren't able to destroy him. The rebelling that was brought about by this opponent, Korah, he was defeated. He could never get together enough people on his side to destroy Moses and his followers, because Moses relied on the help of God, and relying on the help of God, he defeated Korah and his 300 or more people. He crushed them and sent them into the craters into the earth that has been caused by an earth quake - according to the books.

Now, if Moses' opponent was defeated and his people were defeated and drowned in the Red Sea by God, then we don't look for the Last Messenger to be defeated by his opponent either, because I see a fire awaits there, for He will destroy the Last Messenger's opponents in a lake of fire.

This is true. If we believe that Jesus 2000 years ago and Muhammad, 1400, will be the real Last Messenger, we have yet to learn the true knowledge of the prophesy of the Last Messenger.

Muhammad didn't see God. I had mentioned it to you here that the Last Messenger must come with God. He must be with the God. Some say it was the God in the resurrection, because the book teaches us that, and Jesus prophesied of it. Nowhere did Muhammad say that he would be on the right hand side of God or the right hand man of God in the resurrection. Muhammad doesn't tell you that he ever saw God. He only tells you that he heard the voice. This is like the prophets before Muhammad, they only heard the voice, but the visual form of the speaker actually was not seen. This coincides with the teaching of, "...no man has seen God." He was a man that was yet to come. He must come at the last - not before.

He must not be showing Himself. He would only allow himself to be seen in visions to prophets. They couldn't be allowed to see Him in reality, because this knowledge or a description of the God in the last day, the enemy would be waiting for Him and would be ready to kill Him, because they would have had a description of how He would look. Consequently, this Man could not come as a thief in the night of the ignorance of the world; that man could not come as one without observation, for the people would know him. They would say, "Oh yes, this is the Man fulfilling the description of prophet so and so of the last man, and this is the time that we may be looking for or should be looking for, the appearance of such a character among us. So that's a very good description of what's prophesied of Him.

These are the things that we go after brothers and religious scientist. Don't break off with an argument to condemn the truth of the God's last Messenger, just because you don't want to give him credit that he is the one. They can't destroy that which is of the truth and he didn't make himself what he is. He was God's choice, as your Bible bears me witness that he was the choice of God in these words, "This is a marvelous thing in our eyes, but it is the doings of the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes." That's in our book.

In the Holy Qur'an, the Last Messenger tells the scientist there that he was not in the heavens when God decided on teaching him. He was not even in the circle. He didn't know anything about this. It had to be brought to him, because he had no knowledge of prophesy. He was one, I must say, born out of that earth where there was no rain. Therefore, he had no knowledge of the prophecy before he was made the Messenger of Allah. What does this mean to us? This means that God charged the dead, the resurrected dead, to build a kingdom of truth and justice and righteousness on the earth gotten from out of nothing, similar to the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the same way that the father of Israel brought his people, the Caucasian race, into ruling power over the black man. He brought him out of that which the black man didn't know exist in him, which was the germ that made the white race.

The black man didn't know it existed in him, but the father of the Caucasian race discovered it. There wasn't only one germ of the black man but there was two, a brown one and a black one. He went farther to separate it and empowered one and destroy the power of the other, until a greater one than he came to destroy the power of him. His power was limited to only 6,000 years while the one coming to destroy him will have the power to rule forever; therefore, the writers prophesy that he will set up a kingdom that will live forever. There will be no passing away.

This kingdom is on the same order of the same people who were before this vacuum in our history, who allowed an enemy of ours, who was created for the purpose of being our enemy, to exist 6,000 years until a Mighty One is produced among us, and this Mighty One is produced. His wisdom in the black man who was superior before this world will also be superior after this world has been destroyed and there will be no end to the wisdom of the black man.

As there was no end or no birth record of Him, Who is self-created and has no ending in the future. So this is what the book (Bible) is referring to, that this kingdom shall stand forever. It's the black man's kingdom or rule to rule forever. As the white race was not with the history writers of us when the history was made, we call Bible, Qur'an, he wasn't with us. But the same give them a chance in between, for we will be ruling after them, as we were ruling before them. They had no knowledge of our beginning of rule nor will they have any knowledge of the ending of our rule, for there will be no ending. This is very well understood.

If God did not make a Messenger in the last days, there would be no visible representative of God nor any witness bearer. He would have to be that Himself, but that would not be in accordance with the creation. The creation, we have witness of the creator by His works. Now if we are looking forward to having another One creating a new world after the world of our enemies, we must have something to bear witness to Him and His work, so He make an example of this work out of nothing; therefore, we has an argument over die-hards of the Orthodox world and the Christian world who want their prophets to continue to rule and teach and lead the people through the resurrection, when their prophets were only prophets up to the resurrection.

God takes another prophet in the resurrection. His prophet is the first of the resurrection; wherein, the Bible teaches that he is the first born. Muhammad and Jesus was not the first born, because they were not equal. They were not a people that were bred, born and guided by the enemy, but the Last One is one who has been born in the enemies' wicked civilization where there is the knowledge of evil and not of good. We have got to know these things.

So, here we have an argument: who is the Messenger? Okay, He raises one and teaches him a Supreme Wisdom over the prophets before him, because the God Himself Who is going to build or bring about a new civilization, is his teacher. He don't have to study the histories of others and have visions and dreams about what the people should believe, because the God of the new government is his teacher, Who teaches the Last Messenger directly from His mouth, not through visions. We have the old prophets styled as being spiritual, divine teachers; however, none of them represented God in person.

If we would study and try to learn knowledge of the work of God in the last days, we could come to some understanding or agreement on the truth of the type of Messenger that God would have in the last day. He must be a man from the same people who must be resurrected. He must be of that prophesy. He must be also a man that they both can recognize as being themselves. He must be of their language. He must speak their language - not a foreign language of some other kind. He must not be a foreigner. If he's a foreigner, or if he has a strange language, the Holy Qur'an and Bible condemns that as being the Last Messenger. He must speak the language of his people. He must be a man of that people. We couldn't expect an Arab to be the Last Messenger to us, because we don't speak Arabic and the Holy Qur'an said, "If God sent us an Arabic Qur'an, which we cannot read, because it's in the language that we are not able to speak, then we would have an excuse for disbelieving in the Arab and his Holy Qur'an. He is a foreigner to us. He uses a strange language different than our knowledge of language and he has a book that we know nothing about in language which he speaks, Arabic. That kind of man couldn't be sent to us.

A lot of us think we should lift our eye brows up seeking someone out of our people here to come to us with the truth, that someone has come: That was God in person, Master Fard Muhammad, Who has raised a representatives or Messenger from among us to deliver His message to us in our own language and he speaks only our language; therefore, we have no excuse before God in the judgment if we hear the truth in our own language. It must not be in the most exalted language or we say, in the best spoken grammar of our language. It must be in something that our own uneducated, unschooled will understand. One wouldn't have to go to school to learn things; it must be simplified and the only one to do that is another one of the dead.

Give that dead the knowledge of the truth the others don't have and let him teach them. God then holds us to the truth that we heard. Having heard it in our own language, there's no such thing as misunderstanding; for it wasn't in the best of our language, it was in the common simple language of the common people. This is a great thing that God has done for us.

Let's see what the Bible says; I must hit on a few words of prophesy. In the beginning of the Revelations, the last book in the Bible, His Messenger is put in the name of Jesus and that the Christian scholars calls him Jesus, but the work here is not of a Jesus, but of a Messenger that is made of a Jesus, that is God in the last days.

"I am he who was dead." This is so plain to you and I that we cannot dispute and nor summon up an argument about who is the Messenger, for he's one that was once dead to the knowledge of truth, not physically dead, for he's not calling people here from out of grave yards, he's talking to a whole nation and nations. "I am he that was dead." We must remember that we have also amongst the dead, in Jesus' parable of Lazarus, Lazarus speaking to his master. Even his master considered him dead, in these words, "If Abraham you would send one from the dead, my five brothers would here it". So brothers and sisters, I want you to know that the actual Last Messenger is one to be raised from a people who are mentally dead to the knowledge of truth and he is to get the truth from the mouth of God, not out of books, but he must get it from God.

THE NEW BOOK

He, who is the last of the Prophets, was clearly seen and made known to those Prophets before Him, and their life work reflects for us the life and work of the last Prophet, who is not really a prophet in the sense of the word, but rather an apostle or messenger, for He is the Answer and End of the Prophets. His call is unlike the others before him, for all of the Prophets before the last one had their call and mission through inspirations and visions for they saw not the Person of Allah (God) in reality - only in vision - but the last one is Chosen and Missioned directly from the mouth of Allah (God) in person at the end of the world.

He will also bring a Book for His people. A book that the present world has not as yet seen and the devils (infidels) may not see it nor touch it. It is not the present Holy Qur'an nor Bible, but a Book containing the guidance for the people in the Hereafter. Not of this world, therefore, it is carefully guarded from the eyes and ears of this world.

The last Messenger of Allah (God), his position to Allah (God) is not only like that of the moon to the Sun, which only reflects light in the absence of the Sun, but it's like that of the Planet Mercury, which is all but lost in the light of the Sun, and no other planet is between Mercury and the Sun. His message (the Truth) is like the Sun, which makes clear and distinct that which the Moon and Stars cannot.

One preacher I knew in the South whose church I use to go to just to hear him get on this part, that the earth is God's footstool and the heaven is His throne. So I kept listening at that preacher and kept listening at him, I said "he got something right there."

He did have something right. The earth is his footstool. This planet that we're on is the first planet that was made with life on it since the sun. Regardless to what the Scientists say of Mercury being the first planet. Mercury was not the first planet that was made. Mercury is a sign; it's a sign of Allah's Messenger. Oh, if you had time. The planet Mercury is so close to the Sun that the astronomers think that no life could exist there - it's too hot.

Both books are called Holy. The word of Allah (God) is Holy, and His word is true. Therefore, all Truth is Holy; for Allah (God) is Holy and is the Author of truth, without the shadow of a doubt! Allah is the representative of the Holy Qur'an (not a prophet) in these words: "This book, there is no doubt of it, is a guide to those who guard against evil" (2:2), translated by Maulvi Muhammad Ali. Abdullah Yusuf Ali's translation of the same verse reads nearly the same: "This is the book; in it is guidance, sure, without doubt, to those who fear Allah (God)" (2:2).

The Bible does not claim God to be its author. Jehovah calls to Moses out of the burning bush to go to Pharaoh (Exodus 3:9). There is no mention of a book or Bible that is found that Jehovah gave to Moses in the first five books of the Bible, which are claimed to be Moses' books. Moses' rod is the only thing used against Pharaoh and the land of Egypt; and tables of stone in the mountains of Sinai. The miraculous rod of Moses, and not a book, brought Pharaoh and his people to their doom. The Ten Commandments served as a guide for the Jews in the Promised Land. Where do we find in the Bible that it was given to Moses by Jehovah under such name as Bible or the Book?

But, on the other hand, Allah (God) tells that He gave the Book, the Holy Qur'an, to Muhammad. "I am Allah, the best knower, the revelation of the book there is no doubt in it, it is from the Lord of the worlds" (Sura 32:1, 2). Allah says to Muhammad in the same above (Sura 32:23): "We gave the book to Moses, and be not in doubt in receiving it; we made it a guide for the children of Israel."

(If Moses' rod and book were given as a guide for Israel and the gospel God gave to Jesus as a guide and warning to the Christians, and the Holy Qur'an to Muhammad for the Arab world, will God give us (the so-called Negroes) a books as a guide for us? Will He bring it or send it? I or those books were for other people and not for us.)

If we are in the change of the two worlds Christianity and Islam), then surely we need a "new book" for our guidance; for those books have served the people to whom they were given. But all or both books are guidance for us all. Yet we must have a new book for the "new change;" that which no eye has seen nor ear has heard, nor has it entered into our hearts what it is like. We know these books; they have been seen and handled by both the good and no good. Certainly the Holy Qur'an is from the Lord of the worlds, there can be no doubt in the word of Allah (God).

But if the book or books have the words of someone else other than Allah's words in it, then there is no doubt in our hearts concerning the receiving of such book or books!

The Bible and Holy Qur'an are filled with truth that leads us up to the judgment, and some of their prophecies refer to the hereafter. Since these prophecies are a small percentage of the whole, it makes it necessary for a new scripture (or guidance) for the hereafter.

The enemy has tampered with the truth in both books: for he has been permitted to handle both books. Neither the Holy Qur'an nor the Bible was revealed with the intention of converting the white race into truth and righteousness for God knew that there was no good in them the day they were created. But they are capable of deceiving you in regard to Allah and the righteous.

The Bible being tampered with by the Jews and the Christians has caused many divisions among the people because of their not understanding it. Since the creation of the white race, scripture after scripture, along with many prophets, have been given to the people of this world for the purpose of guiding and warning the righteous of their enemies, the devils.

One of its names is, "That Which Makes A Distinction," and another, "That Light or "The Truth." It is the Book for the American so-called Negroes and it is best that they throw the Bible in the waste pail since they cannot understand it. There is another Book that none has been able to see or read, its contents coming soon from Allah - the "Last Book," which takes us into the hereafter.

The Holy Qur'an, the Glory Books, should be read and studied by us, the so-called American Negroes. Both the present Bible and Holy Qur'an must soon give way to that Holy Book which no man as yet but Allah has seen. The teachings (prophecies) of the present Bible and Qur'an takes us up to the resurrection and judgment of this world, but not into the next life. That which is in that Holy Book is for the righteous and evil. The preparation for that unseen life is now going on in the few believers of Islam in America. Islam, the true religion of Allah (God), makes a distinction between the lovers of righteousness and lovers of evil. It is that which Allah (God) is using today to separate the righteous from the evil-doers.

We want you to know that we live in the end of both of these books. You won't study Bible in the hereafter, nor will you study the present Qur'an, no, you will have a new book and the new book will replace the Bible and present Qur'an.

Do not you read in the Bible where that it teaches you that he the prophets or the spirit of the prophet - says in his hearings "Go take that little book and read it, eat it up." think over that. A new book coming into being and that new book is the thing that the people must give ear to. Now we're going the right way, for these 2 former books, the old Testament and the New Testament has served their purpose, so now we have to remove them and get a third book and a forth book, they're 2 more to come. One is for you and the other is for the Orthodox world. It takes a little more for them since they are the fountain of scripture than you because you never had any. No prophet ever came to you before, so says the Holy Qur'an, and we know we didn't see one. We were here and we haven't seen a prophet. So the Holy Qur'an says to you and to me that I am the first ever was sent to you "To a people ..." the Holy Qur'an says "to whom no one has come before you." So I'm here, I hope you will learn to love me.

Well what's in the book is not yet revealed. This same Man, Master Fard Muhammad, is the very same One from Whom this book will come. And He said that He has already written the book, but He's not ready to give it to the world. I would not say even that which I think or have knowledge of. That is a book that takes us on the other side. I don't have the knowledge of its contents, and I wouldn't speak on what I do have knowledge of, or to cover anything like that because it's up on the other side, in the future.

I'm not worried about what you believe in Moses, I'm not worried about you wanting to follow Moses, I'm not worried about what you believe in Jesus and if you want to follow Jesus, I'm not worried about what you believe in Muhammad of 1400 years ago and if you want to follow him I'm not worried about that. I'm only trying to deliver to you the truth that they prophesied will come to you.

Those prophets have done their job and are gone now, but we are at the end of a world that they suffered and died in. We want to do that which they said God told them we would do in this day and time. You may have disdain or contempt for what I'm teaching or because my name is Muhammad, which God gave to me, or that you think I'm trying take the credit for that which has come through Jesus and Muhammad, no. I'm trying to do the things that they predicted that God would do.

They have did their works and their work is on the page of history and has lived up to today where there is a Universal change now taking place. They cannot carry you through this; they were not born to carry you through this. That's why we came from 4,000 years ago to that of 1400 years ago. The teachings that they give their people in those days is not for guiding for you today, only the fundamental principles of it: that is, believe in Allah as one God, believe in His prophets and their scriptures they bring to you, and then do righteous and keep up honor and respect to Allah in prayer and give to the cause of the truth. This is what Islam is going to keep forever, but now there is a new Islam creeping on up, that these prophets prophesied that will come.

The Holy Qur'an says in it, no eye have they seen, nor ear has heard, nor has it entered the hearts of man to conceive, what Allah have in store for those who believe in him in the last days. This is the last days of this world. None of the prophets in the past could see into this. They didn't have the scriptures for tomorrow. They had the scriptures up to today. There are many Muslims who will tell you that the Holy Qur'an is the book that we must go by forever. If this was of it, but not the things that was taught Israel; not the thing that is taught to you and me in the Qur'an up to this day, that it will pass into tomorrow, because the book teaches you that there is another book. The Bible teaches you that there is another book that takes you over into the hereafter.

This book, the Holy Qur'an of today and the Bible is to bring us up to the resurrection, the end of this world, but not to take us through the other world; it is not a guidance for that world. Allah has a new guidance for that world, because that's a new world, do you understand? It's a new people and a new government for that people, and it's called Islam, and the book is called the Holy Qur'an, because the meanings of the name Qur'an is good for that book too. Listen well.

The Bible and Qur'an says no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it entered the hearts of man to know what God have in store for the hereafter, for the people of that time. You are not to know it. This is totally out of a world that has ruled for 6,000 years whose rulers were enemies to righteous. As the world to come is a world of righteousness and a people of righteousness.

The law shall not be broken or disobeyed in that world nor shall an enemy of that world go over in that world. The disbeliever shall be cut off on this side, and the believers will go on the other side. You are not to know what God has prepared for them since you are not going over there.

This is a book that is given to a Last Messenger with the history of other messengers, and to acquaint them more into the knowledge of the people with whom he now must deal. This is what this book is, the Bible is the same. These two books stop at the resurrection of the dead. The dead is the lost member of the black nation, who has been killed to the knowledge of self and others by his enemies. This book opens his eyes where a Messenger has been raised who have been given the knowledge of the book.

The Messenger raised in the last days must have knowledge from God of His written word given by the prophets before him. These two books, the Bible and Qur'an, are made clear. The understanding or the interpretation is given to that last man and given to him in such a way, that even at just a glance - he don't have to read the whole book, just show him something in it that you found - quickly God has given him the understanding of it; he doesn't have to study. The same goes for the translated Qur'an, you don't have to read this book to me; just tell me what you don't understand about it.

This is an answer to Abraham's prayer... "Oh Allah, raise up from among them a Messenger or an Apostle of themselves and teach him the wisdom and the book." The book there refers to the Bible while they only use conjecture, guessing and that you know. Thousands of preachers all over the country are guessing at the Bible's meanings; therefore, they don't understand it and they're still out there and they are too proud now to come and get it from one that God has given it to.

Both books warn you of the coming judgment, both books warn you of a great separation. You say you don't want to be separated. You're a disbeliever in the word of God. On that day they will be separated, says the Holy Qur'an. The Bible says, "And the Son of Man shall set, He shall set, and He shall judge the nation for all shall be judged before Him." "And the Judgment will be..." says Daniel, and the people of God, the ancient of the ancient, will come and they will take away the prey. They will come and take their people in the night. Moses, the Bible says, went out under a physical darkness. That was a physical darkness, and that the Bible teaches us that Moses told them that not a dog shall move their tongue.

Now the Bible teaches and the Holy Qur'an teaches you that we also will be carried out under darkness, but not under a physical darkness, it's not necessary. Under a spiritual darkness when brains are not working right, they will go out while they are confused. Confusion, confusion, as it is written, is taking over America. Every hour in the day they are trying to find a way out of their own bought troubles, which is getting worse every hour. Each one trying to blame the other, and finally they jump on the president and talk about assassinating him, but they never got too busy yet to stop and try to stop you from going over to your own.

TWO PHASES OF ELIJAH'S MISSION

God is the end of what we have in books when He makes his appearance; that's the end of what we have in books. He then must teach His Messenger what He wants him to know from his mouth, because He must move him up into the knowledge of what He intends to build or create.

Then there are two phases of the Messenger's work was here as it was with Moses. Moses had two phases of his work. He got his people out of the bondage of Pharaoh, but yet he didn't have in it that which could bring to them success and progress in the nation or in the country where they were going. So, the book teaches us he had to go up in the mount of God to get something like a law or get a scripture which they had to have to be successful in a land where they can be independent. The God didn't dare give him that in Egypt, nor did He give him that soon after they had gotten across the Red Sea, but this went on for a while and He gave it to Moses when the people were ready to go into the land that He had promised them. It would be used to guide them out of the ears and eyes of Pharaoh and His people. It was there he received it.

Here we have in the resurrection a Lamb rising up and receiving a book which the beasts around him or in the midst of him, admires it and is confounded over the contents of that which he's reading or studying. They are confounded. It confounds them to the extent that they cannot even talk. The Lamb is here opening up that which the beast nor even the scientist of heaven have ever known - not even the 24 scientist who wrote our history, their descendants or that claim to that is maintained by our civilization. This book now comes down which is the reading of a scripture that's given to the Lamb from the hand of God.

Are not you willing to agree with me, that this is what Jesus and Muhammad prophesied of: "that which no eye have seen nor ear have heard, nor have it entered into a man's heart to conceive of it? That truth which the Last Messenger receives is so mighty and so superior to what others prophets in the past have received.

I want to say to you my people, we the Muslims will rule. We the Muslims, I repeat will rule. The Muslims, I repeat, as the first time, will rule the civilizations of this earth. We the Muslims... I want to warn you who think we are nothing in the world but an easy kick over, brought the white man out of the caves and hillsides of Europe and civilized them. We are the ones who did that. We the Nation of Islam have produced all of his guidance. If we had not sent Musa to him nearly 4,000 years ago to pull him out of the caves and hillsides of Europe, they would have been there until today. We are the people who did that. If you want me to talk what I know, make me angry and I will talk. I know these things. For the last few thousand years since the creation of the white race, there has become a dislike for black all over the earth, even in Asia there is a dislike for the black man. I say to you my friend, if you are able to come back here a thousand years from today, one thousand - you won't find white, brown or yellow. You will find all black. Make me to prove it, we have tried it. The Holy Qur'an teaches you directly that we tried everything. We tried the mountains and they would not disobey, now we tried this man here, meaning the Caucasian race and he's very disobedient and proud, a disputer, even disputes with the maker. He says now if we please, we will remove them and try you and see what you will do now, trying you, means the American so-called Negro.

I say as we have tested and tried every power that we found in us, the white man was the last one and now today we will go back to that first one. It's going to take us one thousand years to get to him; nevertheless, we will get to him, and a thousand years from today the whole earth will have nothing on it but black people.

There are many things that God has taught me that I would like to tell you, but I know you, you are evil, you are a hateful people. You envy one if God happens to reveal truth to him. You envy him and you seek to kill him; you want to kill me. You would like to kill me, but I say to you that God has promised me life. God has promised me, that I will be with Him in the last day.

BELIEF IN LAST MESSENGER IS SUFFICIENT

I want you to get this in your mind. We are not worshipping something spooky or some kind of formless spirit up in the sky. We have never seen anything up there but sky, stars, planets, and that's all we can see up there. We don't see no God walking in the midst of them telling us on Earth that, "I am the God up here and I am the God down there." We don't hear that. The scientists have made glasses [telescopes] so far reaching into space, that they can tell what's on the surface of planets millions of miles away. So, what should we be worshipping when it is that which we know nothing about?

It's just a lie which the devil told us, that God was not Man. He knows better, but he didn't want you to worship Allah as a Man. He has even got some of the Orthodox Muslims believing such lies, that Allah is not a Man. The Holy Qur'an teach you of them, saying that the "Messenger believes in a man." I don't like to challenge you in no such argument when I know you don't know what you're talking about. That is why we have a Day of Judgment to test out all of these things that people claim to believe in.

Allah says in His Holy Qur'an, that, "On the judgment day if you bring a god up beside myself, you will not be able...", in words to say, "...to win." "There is no God..." He says, "...but Me.

I am Allah, the Best Knower, I am Allah." Think over that. "If you want to make a spook out of me look at me good. I'm not a spook, but I am Allah." I stayed with Him and He taught me for three years, four months, night and day. If you think you know Allah better than me, let me question you. If we are not going to have a thorough knowledge of God on the Judgment Day, when will we have through knowledge? I want you to remember these things.

We are not here to tell you other than the truth. We are here to tell you the truth, because others have gone before who have done the lying, and using things they had no knowledge of. They would guess and their guessing makes mistakes. The Bible and Qur'an warn you against such things. One says to Abraham and Ishmael, "To raise up one among them...", they prayed for this, "...and teach him the book...- the Bible,"... and the wisdom, for many of them they guess at it."

The preachers, who love to be called preachers, after their white enemies, will kill himself and his people too, just to have the white man call him Reverend. Well that's right. The Bible teach it like this, that, "They love the praise of this world neglect the hereafter." They just love to do things that satisfy the blue-eyed Caucasians. I care nothing about his blue-eyed devils; for its written on the Judgment Day, Allah will gather the guilty blue-eyed. This means white people. The guilty blue-eyed, He'd gather and push them in a lake of fire. So, if your blue-eyes don't believe in Allah and Islam, you'd better change them. Have them operated on and put some black eyes in.

The Will of Allah: let Thy Will be done. Allah has not been free to do His Will for the last 6,000 years. This was due to the time given to the devils to do their will, trying to destroy us from Allah and His Truth. He gave the devils 6,000 years; remember this, to destroy the truth of us and to destroy us physically.

I don't think you have studied this too much. For nearly 40 years I have studied scripture and history, after Allah taught me for three years and four months. He gave me 104 books to study. He gave me the number of them and the place where I could find them. I studied, and He gave me a Holy Qur'an in Arabic, but I couldn't read it. So, He got me one in Arabic and English translated by Muhammad Ali of Pakistan. Later He found one translated by Yusef Ali of Egypt; He brought me that one. Then He told me, "I will give you a Holy Qur'an when you learn how to read Arabic, then I will give you a Holy Qur'an in Arabic." He said, "I made it myself." He showed me that Holy Qur'an in Arabic in September last [1971], but I couldn't read it. I could only recognize one letter in it. I expect Him within a year to come back with that same book.

A man, you can call Him what you want to, given a job as I have been given, can't take the material things of this world to bring it in as a foundation for another world. These things here in books, that I have read, will not do for building a new world. We must have a new teaching.

The Holy Qur'an will live forever, why, because it has truth in it. I will not say it has "some" truth, it's all truth, if you understand. Notice the Holy Qur'an is unlike the Bible. The Bible is full of prophesy; the Holy Qur'an is not. The Holy Qur'an is a message directly to Muhammad, the Messenger. This is why it reads, "...say so and so and so;" or "And when they say so and so and so, you say so and so." This is a direct message to a student under the teachings and guidance of Allah. So I want you to understand these things and why the Bible is a book of prophesy.

The Will of Allah: let Thy Will be done. Allah's Will could not be done until the will of him that was given a certain time to rule us on the planet earth was done. This god must have the freedom, and the right of that freedom, to rule according to his god. This is the white race of whom I'm referring. There has been many attempts made by prophets to put a stop to the will of the devil, to rule the people, but he was the winner. His will had to be done, because God and the Scientists of God in the world, as we call them prophets, they could not overcome the devil. He was given 6,000 years to force us under his rule, if he could. Such people as prophets, he killed them, and imprisoned them to keep them from interfering with the right of his rule. Up until today, he went after everyone. He is after me day and night.

I don't say that I'm a prophet, because it's the end of prophets. I'm a Messenger of God and not a prophet. I've got nothing to prophesy, because this is the end of prophesy, so I have nothing to prophesy. Elijah, the man, is prophesied in the Bible; he's spoken of in a few places in the Qur'an as a righteous man, a good man. The Holy Qur'an gives it to him. He was with the number of those prophets. But it is not exactly referring to him as a prophet, because Elijah is not to come to prophesy, but to deliver the final message to the people and join with God. That's why you don't find his grave in the Bible nor Holy Qur'an. You don't find where they buried Elijah. He must go as it is written of him; not that he lives forever, but Elijah's under several other names. The Bible calls this name as meaning "one with God." It says that this man's name means, "God is with us." That is also a true interpretation. God is with us today and I am with you.

The Bible teaches you and me that this Elijah must first come. He doesn't come after God. He goes before God, and this is what the book means. He must first come, but right behind him God will appear.

The Will of God: "Let Thy Will be done." The Christians pray "...on Earth as it is in heaven." But, you and I never did get the true meaning of what he meant. How can Thy Will, meaning Allah's Will, be done as long as the will of the devil is practiced? You cannot set up the Will of God universally as long as He has a free enemy to attack His Will. We must rid the people of the open enemy, as the Holy Qur'an teaches, from attacking the truth and from attacking the truthful ones. We must rid the Earth of such opponents, who are not secret. They are open opponents. We must rid the Earth of open enemies and secret enemies.

Let Thy Will be done, as it is in heaven, let it be done on earth. Your Will shall not be hindered by no means and by no one. Therefore, God rises up Himself to fight the final war for truth, peace and security for the righteous. He comes out Himself to be the champion, and leads the righteous to victory. It is a great thing to know that His Will comes into practice and use, in the last days, wherein, God only wills it and there it is. This is the way it began at the beginning.

After God created Himself, He then Willed that the Heavens and that which we see above, beneath and around us, come to pass. He just Willed that. Here today, we see it. Here today we are enjoying it. A Will that was made in space, where there were no planets, and no star lights, but His Will comes true and made material things to come out of nothing. The brain had no limit of power. His Power was forever to be respected and made known, the Will.

This is what's going on today. When a righteous person becomes so righteous, gets so close to God, God accepts him as His friend. Then the wills of each, is with each other, and what one wills, the other wills. This is what the Holy Qur'an teaches you and me today, that the Will of Allah is the will of His Messenger, and the will of His Messenger is the Will of Allah. "I will grant you whatever thou desire." Think over that. "Your desire is My desire; My desire is your desire. The belief in Me is the belief in the Messenger." The belief in the Messenger is the same. Make the Messenger an object to take your chance with Him, if you believe in the Messenger. That's sufficient - you believe in me.

The Messengers will is according to the Will of Allah. He can't will something opposed to Allah. Allah has taken over the Messengers heart, mind, and brain, making him to react according to His Will. Thou will be done; let thou will be done. He's on time, that His Will should be done.

Satan has lived over his time. By we, the poor lost and found black people of America not knowing Allah or the Will of Allah, Allah had to give us time to be justified in bringing about an end to Satan's rule. We are here in the midst, born and nursed by the devil himself. We knew nothing but the devil and the devil's work. We didn't have the knowledge of the devils, which is the science of tricknology. All these years, he had played it on us. This is why I have been saying that we are teaching the Theology, the knowledge of secret things said in a theological way, which we had not been studying. We never were smart enough to study the theology side of things. So many of us never went to school for such.

I was talking with a few ministers of the seminary college on the East Coast, while I was running up and down on it. I happen to be lucky to meet some of them. They quickly gave up and said, "Yes Mr. Muhammad we never were taught what you are teaching us here, at the Seminary College that we went to. They didn't teach us this." I said, "Surely this lets you know then that they were holding back secrets of yourself and of the scripture, so that you would not be able to understand yourself and teach your people..." They beared witness, "You are right and I believe he's just what you call him." I said, "You don't have to believe it, stick around a few days brother."

Chapter 5, verse 116 of the Holy Qur'an, teaches you and me that we should not have believed Jesus was God. It says, "And when Allah will say: O Jesus, son of Mary, didst thou say to men, take me and my mother for two gods besides Allah?" He will say, "Glory be to Thee! It was not for me to say what I had no right..." - this is Jesus talking - "If I had said it, Thou would have indeed have known it. Thou knowest what is in my mind, and I know not what is in Thine. Thou knowest in full all that is hidden."

To hear where Jesus denies or denies us from making him a God, he was not a god of the sort which the Christians have made him. He denies it even in the Bible where he says that he is something like all other prophets, and that he was not a god that people should take him for. He was like all the other ones; in fact, this may bring a little dislike of me from you Christians, but there is no place in the Bible, in the whole book, where it prophesies of him coming even as a prophet. I will give you ten thousand dollars if you can find in the Bible where it prophesies of Jesus coming as a prophet. What you read of Jesus in the Bible's prophesy is myself!

MEN OF SCRIPTURE SHOULD KNOW ME

I want the Christian preachers to listen to all I have to say, and then you can ask me to make clear anything that I don't. Since you are a student and preachers of the scripture, then you ought to know me, because the Bible prophesies of Elijah coming to you and I am Elijah. This man prophesied in the Bible teaches you that he must first come. He must first come, meaning, he must come before God to make a way for God to come.

If that man has to come first, not God coming first, but He must send this man first, then He comes after this man. What is this man? What and why is he so important that he must go ahead of God? He must prepare the way. Why doesn't God prepare the way? Why should he send Elijah to prepare the way? He prepared Elijah to prepare the way. This is done by governments, and nations all over the Earth. They send an ambassador to a foreign nation, to get acquainted with that nation so that the king, president or the people of a foreign land may get acquainted with a foreign nation. They see if they can make friends with each other. I'm here to get you acquainted with God, so that we can see whether or not you're able to live with God after your acquaintance.

It is impossible for an enemy of God to make people friends or establish a friendship between the two; that's impossible, unless you change their nature. We cannot recognize a preacher sent from the devil to lead us to God, because he will try acquainting us with the true God, but according to his training by the enemy of the true God. I'm not trying to make enemies between us; I'm trying to make friendships. The thing that has happened between our black Christian preachers and the preachers of Islam, is that the black Christian preachers actually believe what the blue-eyed devils have taught them is right. They are being led to believe, by the blue-eyed devils, that they will get to heaven, even ahead of us; when in fact, he's leading you directly to hell. This is what I'm raised up in your midst to put a stop to, you following an enemy of God when you think he's a friend. To stop you from going to his hell which he has made, because by nature, he was made to make hell for the righteous.

We are here with truth. We are here to be attacked by the world of the devil and win over them. Christianity is dying a natural death. Everybody who's awakening to the root of the white race's Christianity is turning it down. Reverend your whole church is getting chilly. I just want you and me to take our place as brothers. I'm going against you, because pretty soon, you will surely come over to Elijah Muhammad.

I read in the Bible, Revelation, that last book, where it prophesies that the devil and his followers, his representatives will be going down in a lake of fire and I know who this is. This is the preachers of Christianity of black men and women. Due to the lack of knowledge of their enemy and his religion, he deceives them. I want to show you that I have the key to the knowledge of the devil and the knowledge of you. I'm here in the midst of the devil and I dare not to bite my tongue. I'm going to keep the teeth off of my tongue so I can use it to speak the plain truth.

We are living in a time called the resurrection. Resurrection means to rise up. Resurrection means that everybody comes to the knowledge of the truth on the rise. I am one who was also dead. Allah, the God of the Universe, raised me to come and raise you up. This is also written in your book, that this man, whom He chooses, would be His Messenger or His Apostle. Although the Bible said prophet, I am not sent as a prophet. I'm the end of prophets. You don't need a prophet today, you need direction, and direction comes from a Messenger to lead you in the right path. He directs you from himself to God in reality. If the devil had preached to believe in God, the true God, he would not have been a devil. They're out there with the cities filled with [church] houses. They're only out there trying to deceive you into believing that they are directly from God and are preaching God's Word.

MINE IS FROM ABOVE, YOURS IS FROM BENEATH

The devils, blue-eyed white people, love to get around Reverend. They call him their man, you know, and Reverend calls himself their man. Reverend believes in that blue-eyed devil, because he calls him Reverend and pretends to be backing him up, but he's not backing Reverend up into nothing but the fire of hell. Reverend, cannot you see that he can't do anything with me? He doesn't call me Reverend. They can't stop me and I did not get a license from him to preach. When a man says that he is God's preacher and then has to be licensed by the world of his enemies, you have not yet become God's preacher. You're the devil's slave-making, white man's preacher. These are truths. These licenses ordain you to preach and you must preach like he says. If you don't, he will come over and tell you to, "sit down reverend." He didn't license me nor ordained me. I just went to preaching by orders of my God.

What does a God-ordained minister of the spirit of himself, look like going over to a devil asking him for a license? Oh brother, it's sickening almost to talk about it. My people are ordained and sent by the devil, to preach what he tells him to preach to his people. Brother, I would kick him in the face. Don't be frightened Reverends. Don't be afraid. As long as you're here with me, they're not going to run in here and bother you. Remember how Elijah fought with Ahab and proved his 400 preachers to be liars and he took them and chopped their heads off. I'm not going to chop off your head. Don't be thinking that, but I'm going to chop off the head of the one that put you out there.

I want my God and myself to save you out of his clutches. We want to take you away from that. You will be preaching Islam overnight, but little do you know it. If you take time and read your Bible, you will bear me witness that you have nothing that you should do, but to come and follow Elijah. Elijah must first come. If there was an Elijah that was capable with the power of God, and wisdom of God to save the people, why do they look for him to come?

There are thousands of preachers all over the country, but you can't make a way for your God and my God, because you don't serve Him. You don't convert people to our God; you convert him to save the blue-eyed devil. All the converts that you make in your church today, you are making them for him, not for Almighty God, Who has power over the Heavens and the Earth. Have you made one convert for Him? Of all your preaching that you have preached, all of your life, how many have you made converts to the God of Heaven and Earth? Not even one. You made him for the white folks. I don't care if you make a thousand a day, as long as you are preaching Christianity; you are making them for the white man. He claims them to be his. Every Christian he claims to be his. Every Muslim I claim him to be mine.

THE VEIL MUST BE LIFTED

The reason you must know of the truth today is because the liar must be removed. To keep you from getting confused over the truth and the lie, a plain Warner, says the Holy Qur'an, will be sent to you whose words will be easy for you to understand. He will speak your own language and he will be chosen from among you. There will be no stranger coming out of the East to you. It will be one of you, like God has always done in the past. He raises up a Warner or a prophet from among the people He warns, so they will have no excuse saying that they don't understand that stranger. There were no such plain truths taught to us in the past. We've been shining our eyes looking for somebody to scale the eastern horizon and looking up to see them coming, but the Holy Qur'an condemns such, because if that man comes from the East, he may speak a strange language and you won't be able to understand it. The Holy Qur'an then says that you will say, "Oh, an Arab and an Arabic Holy Qur'an, [I] can't understand either one."

He goes into your family and searches for one of your own, takes him off aside and teaches him what He wants you to know, then when you hear the word of truth coming from the mouth of those among you or one from among you, you can't have an excuse and say you couldn't understand the language. He speaks the same language that you speak.

I want you to listen good today. You have something coming to some of you who have never heard it before. I am that little fellow that He had taken off aside and taught. Why [do] I say, "Little fellow?" The Bible makes him little. He didn't make him a big sheep. He said a little lamb. So, I'm very little. I don't know how much is lamb about me, but I know I'm little. It is up to you to listen, and as you listen, read and remember.

If God says in the Bible, "Just before that dreadful day shall come, I shall send you Elijah." I am Elijah. The truth must be made very clear. If I had jumped out of the college or university door of this people to you, I would be speaking their language. The theology, science as we call it, I would have been teaching you theirs, since they have never taught you theirs in many things.

I was talking in Washington D.C., back in the middle 30's to a couple of theology teachers of Christianity. We really had it for a while until my fire out-burned theirs. So, at the end of our argument, we got up and shook hands, both of them, and one said, "I never heard that before, because they just don't teach us Negroes nothing over there like that." I said, "They don't have this over there to teach you."

It is not that white people of Christianity, the theologians, have this really hidden, they never heard it before. It is the first time they ever heard the real truth of themselves. As one priest told me one day, he said, "Elijah," he said, "We knew this was coming alright enough...", he said, "but I never understood it from the Bible like you have it." I said, "Your Bible teaches you that," I said. "It teaches you that the secret of it was never known and would not be known until the end, and then God would send you that preacher to preach to you the truth of it. The Holy Qur'an warns you that Abraham and Ishmael prayed for such man; that God would raise him up from among you at that time to teach you the knowledge of the book and to make known to you the wisdom, which is hidden from you. This is the little fellow in whose ears God put it all.

Why must you have it today? It is due to the removal of the old rule and your old God that you've been worshipping; not knowing where He lives or where He exists. Some of us said, "He lives in my soul." Yes, that's the truth: that truth does live within us, but knowing where the truth came from is the main thing. Who is the truth giver?

If you have patience with me for about a month, I will have you so smart..., yes, I will have you so smart, that you can tie him around your finger.

I am Elijah of your Bible, I am the Muhammad of your Holy Qur'an; not the Muhammad that was here 1,400 years ago. I am the one of whom the Holy Qur'an is referring. The Muhammad that was here 1,400 years ago was a white man, and then they put up a sign of the real Muhammad. It's there in Mecca, Arabia; they call it the little Black Stone. I looked at it. I made seven circuits around it. I kissed the little Black Stone, but I didn't like kissing it, because I knew what it meant. It means that the people will bow to the real Blackman who is coming up out of an uneducated people, having not the knowledge of the Bible and Holy Qur'an, which is why they made it an un-hewed stone: he will be uneducated. So, I was there kissing the sign of myself and I was afraid to tell them that this is me you're talking about here.

So, what you have been told, it was told to you to understand. It was not given to you to understand before time; this is the time that you must know the secret to all truths which has been put into symbolic language. Now, today, the veil must be lifted, do you understand? If you believe that I'm he, then you are a very lucky man or woman. It is not that I want you to believe and worship me, but believe and worship Him of Whom I teach.

Thank you for purchasing this book. We trust the reading was rewarding and enlightening.

#

About The Author:

Elijah Muhammad was born on October 7, 1897 in Sandersville, Georgia. He met his teacher, Master Fard Muhammad, in Detroit, Michigan, after migrating there in the early 1930's. Upon the departure of his teacher, Elijah Muhammad became the Leader, Teacher and Guide of what went from The Lost-Found Nation of Islam in North America to what is known today as the Nation of Islam.

Notable students of the Messenger were Malcolm X Little, later named Malik El Shabazz, Cassius Clay, also named Muhammad Ali, and Louis Wilcox, later named Louis Farrakhan.

Given the profundity of the writings of Elijah Muhammad, it would be an injustice to attempt to put it in a small synopsis; therefore pasting the link below or visiting us online at www.memps.com, will render the best and most accurate information available about Messenger Elijah Muhammad.

Connect with Us Online:

Smashwords:

<http://www.smashwords.com/profile/view/elijahmuhammad>